PRESENTATION

At CIC BATÁ we understand our work as part of a clear commitment to the social changes that we consider necessary for all of us to exercise our rights. Being, forming and taking part, along with other people and entities.

Our values are respect, solidarity, participation and commitment.

The Social Film Festival La Imagen del Sur is a communicative, educational and cultural project of CIC BATÁ that stimulates citizen participation. The Image of the South allows us to connect with different social situations, struggles for the exercise of fundamental rights, cultures and realities of our diverse world, with people being the protagonists of all these situations. The Film Festival La Imagen del Sur is a space for diversity to enjoy good cinema, for communication and for participation.

The Social Film Festival La Imagen del Sur creates spaces for reflection and exchange with groups and social organizations that participate in the screenings of the different films presented.

CONVOCATION

CIC BATÁ CALLS FOR directors of films with a social theme to participate in the XVI Social Film Festival LA IMAGEN DEL SUR.

Through this call, the works that will be exhibited in the 2022 Exhibition will be selected.

Base 1a: Characteristics and objectives of the sample The Sample The Image of the South is different for being a non-competitive event and organized in a cinema-forum format, counting for the official presentation of the sample in Andalusia with the presence of professionals from the field of realization and production, social organizations, actors and protagonists related to the projections made.

The objectives are:

- Present an attractive selection of films (documentaries and fiction) with a social theme, based on the works presented in this call. These works must be short and medium-length films and deal with some issue related to the promotion of gender equity and social justice, human rights, the environment, the protection of cultural diversity and the emancipatory alternatives and practices of peoples.
- Open spaces for debate and reflection on the social, political, economic and cultural reality that is shown through the selected films, offering the participating public a more direct communication/information channel.
- Link public and private groups and organizations from Córdoba, Andalusia, Spain and the world to the debate and dissemination of the exhibition.
- Create and disseminate the film collection made up of all the works that have been selected throughout the history of the Social Film Festival through the web portal www.imagenesdelsur.tv, with the aim of making them known and demanded by social organisations, institutions, the media and private entities, the show acting as a showcase for this cinema in coordination with its authors.
- Promote each year a space for training, meeting and articulation in which professionals from the field of filmmaking, production, and social organizations participate in the framework of the La Imagen del Sur Exhibition.
